TEST OF STRENGTH

It Will Come in the Senate in Few Days.

Initiative and Referendum Will Furnish the Material.

FORCES IN A MUDDLE.

Doubtful if Bill Can Be Forced Through.

Position of the Democrats Source of Speculation.

This week the first real test of strength will be made in the senatewhen the two initiative and referendum resolutions and the recall are disposed of by that more or less obstreperou body. The advance efforts to save the resolutions were started several days ago. Several caucuses will be held this week and the insurgent wing of the party will try to drive enough of the regulars to cover to save the platform a second that sometimes springs a leak; and that is the charge that the adprohibition element is against the L week ago it was charged that the administration had backed up and would defeat the resolution in the committee

the laughing stock of the senate.

Three resolutions are on the calendar for consideration next Thursday. Two of these measures were offered by the minority. The first resolution to be entered the hotel, considered is the administration initiawe and referendum. Twenty-seven one and a small turquoise ring were ones are needed to crowd it through on her fingers and a gold mesh purse he senate. There are 18 insurgent lay on the bureau. The purse was tive and referendum. Twenty-seven otes in the senate at the absolute dis- empty and help the insurgents. This gives the resolution 23 votes. The puzzle in the reform camp at the present time, is to discover the remaining four votes necessary to adopt a resolution. Myers and other insurgent members, claim they will produce the votes when the roll is called.

On the other hand the standpats deon the other hand the standpars de-clare the Democrats have their own resolutions at stake and dare not for-sake their own documents to help the administration. This being true, the reform vote drops back to 18. The Democrats have nothing to say. They are sawing wood and will vote as often as possible. Although the senate is a full week shead of the house in the disposal of legislation, little fireworks has been legislation. little fireworks has been exploded on the floor since the session opened. Most of the work has been disposed of in the committee rooms. There away from the curious eyes of the inquiring public, the committees have doctored and patched the weak measures and strangled the attempts at freak legislation. When the committees reported bills, it was usually with a view that they could be worked into good laws. Very few of the bills into good laws. Edward McLean Purchases the Famous Hope Diamond.

Pays $300,000 for Stone With a Remarkable History.

Washington, Jan. 30.-The famou "Hope" blue diamond, known as one of the most beautiful gems in the world. as well as one of the most unlucky, has been purchased for $300,000 by Edwari B. McLean of this city from a firm of jewelers of New York and Paris. The gem. which is sapphire blue, weighs 44% carats, and once belonged to H. T.

The jewel is believed to have been cut from the large blue diamond, weighing in the rough 1124 carats, sold by Tavernier to Louis XIV, which disappeared in the troubles of 1792. The diamond was brought to this country from Paris bout four months ago.

Mr. McLean, the new owner of the Mack Cretcher, of the Sedgwick Pantagraph, is one of the happiest men attending the meeting. Since the last session the Pantagraph has built a new home, with modern conveniences, private offices, a rest room and all of those things, in addition to enlarging the cathings, in addition to enlarging the capacity of the plant. Cretcher is a Democrat and hopes the Republicans will start a big scrap in the annual gathering of the Kansas Day club.

W. R. Smith. who was formerly editor of the Fort Scott Republican, is now editor of a new morning paper in Columbus. He is well pleased with the receipts of his new paper, but complains bitterly of the long office hours.

H. L. Harris, the new editor of the Herington Times, is attending the meeting. Harris says that any fellow who runs for office should be allowed to spend as much money as he pleases and it should not be a part of the business of the legislature to re-strict him. W. H. Smith, who former ly owned the Times, came to Topeka with Harris. He says he will get in the game again as soon as he sees a good opening.

W. Y. Morgan, editor of the Hutch inson News, is being boomed for the presidency of the association. Morgan stands high with the newspaper fraternity over the state and opposition has developed over his selection as the head of the Kansas colony of newspaper men and women.
